

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Water Country is Now Hiring for the 2019 Season
Park seeks more than 300 new team members for fun summer jobs

April, 2019 (Portsmouth, NH) – Water Country is hiring for the most exciting jobs on the seacoast. Responsibilities may include lifeguarding guest-favorite water slides or serving up delectable treats. Current openings include life guards, food and beverage, retail, group sales, guest services, parking, security, and more. Cross-training among departments offers team members the chance to learn and grow, while advancement opportunities are available to those who display great responsibility and leadership. No prior experience necessary, training and certification will be provided.

In addition to competitive pay, positions at the water park offer perks including free admission for employees, discounted admission to other nearby attractions, flexible schedules, and a fun, upbeat work environment. Water Country also offers a variety of employee events and in-park parties throughout the season, along with recognition programs for team members to earn incentives based on attendance and performance.

All applicants will be considered on a rolling basis, with interview sessions and employment decisions occurring throughout the spring months. Applicants must be at least 14 years of age or older at the time of application; some positions require employees to be 18+. There are great opportunities for teens, college students, teachers and other professionals seeking part-time summer employment, retirees, and everyone who wants to make a positive contribution to this storied park. More information and applications are available online at www.watercountry.com/employment. Water Country is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
